Tracy Chapman, Deepak Chopra and Phylicia Rashad. He graduated with honors from Yale University with a B.A. in English and Music, and holds an M.F.A. in Acting from American Conservatory Theatre.

The "Arena Presents" series is designed to complement Arena Stage's subscription programming and expand the commitment to American voices that has been a hallmark of Artistic Director Molly Smith's tenure. "Arena Presents" also brings the outrageous musical revue and recent 2007 Tony Nominee for Best Theatrical Event Kiki & Herb: Alive on Broadway to Washington in spring of 2008. Co-created and performed by Justin Bond and Kenny Mellman, Kiki & Herb makes its D.C. debut in the Kreeger March 6 – 30.
