SPECIFIC INFORMATION FOR Exclusion

PLEASE NOTE: Usher check-in will begin 90 minutes prior the start of the show and will last for 30 minutes. Please go directly to your theater once you have checked in. Lobby ushers are on duty after they check-in. They will get show specific information from the House Manager at the Visitors Services Desk and should then proceed directly to their post.

The house will open approximately 30 minutes prior to the performance. Ushers stationed inside the theater should proceed directly to the theater after check-in and should be in place and ready to go 5 minutes prior to the house opening.

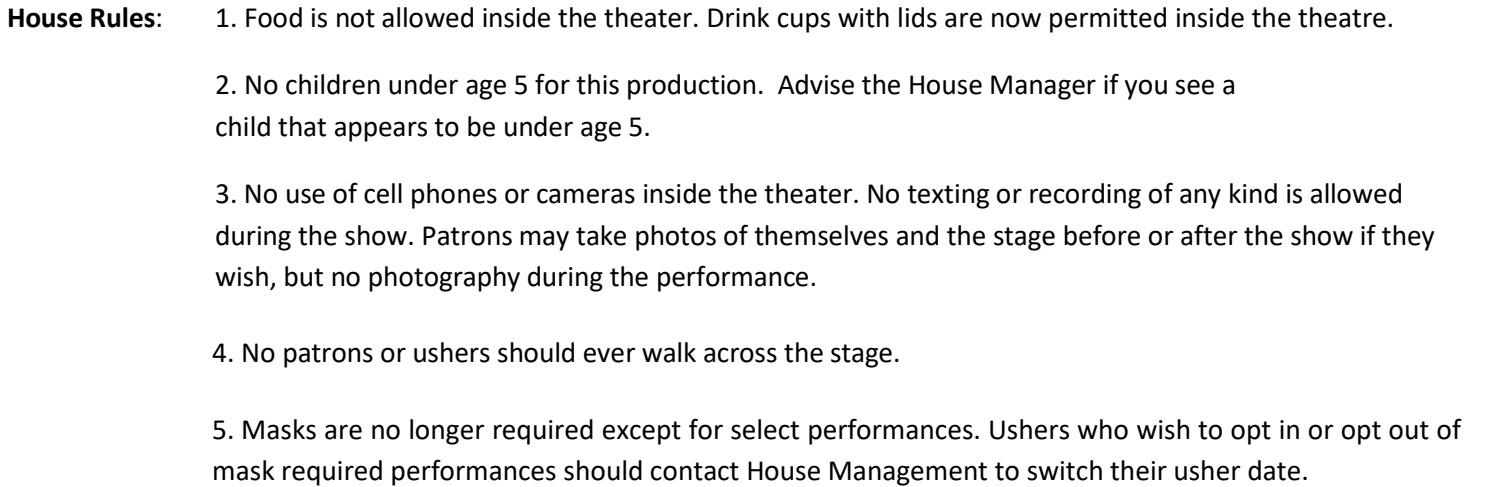

Show Length: The show is approximately 1 hour and 30 minutes with no intermission.

Content: This production will contain theatrical haze and a depiction of racially motivated violence.

Late Seating Break: The "late seating break" is a time in each performance, designated by the director, when latecomers may be seated within the theater. The time is selected by the director so it will be the least disturbing, as well as safest to/for the audience and the actors.

The late seating break is 15 and a half minutes into the show at the first scene change. Your cue line is when the character of Harry says "We're gonna tell her that your little book just got greenlit to become a big fucking show!" You may then take any patrons to seats.

Seating: On the seating chart below, please note the left and right sides of the theater. The aisle numbers, as well as the top of the tickets, will let you know what direction to send the patrons as they enter the theater. Also note that at the top of an aisle; the even numbered seats are on your right- hand side, the odd numbered seats are on your left-hand side and the three-digit seats are in the middle section. Aisle ushers, please make sure no one walks across the stage or touches anything on the stage before or after the show.

Patrons with Walkers/Canes/Wheelchairs: If you take a patron's walker (or other mobility equipment) at the beginning of the show to stow it for them, you are then responsible for returning it to the patron after the performance has concluded. You will be that patron's personal concierge for the evening. If you should happen to check out early – please remember to advise the House Manager or a neighboring usher, the location of the patron and their items.

After the performance has concluded the ushers will remain inside the theater until all patrons have safely exited the space.
