ARENA STAGE ANNOUNCES CAST AND CREATIVE TEAM
FOR WORLD PREMIERE OF CRAIG LUCAS’ CHANGE AGENT
JANUARY 21 – MARCH 6, 2022

 Lucas directs this compelling, provocative Power Play centered around 1960s America and the influences that shaped defining moments in history

(Washington, D.C.) Arena Stage at the Mead Center for American Theater announces the full company for the world premiere of Craig Lucas’ Change Agent, recipient of an Edgerton Foundation New Play Award. Inspired by the tumultuous events of the 1960s, Change Agent is a political thrill ride that explores how one woman fought to bring humanity to policy and expand the consciousness of a nation through her friendships and proximity to power. Written and directed by Lucas, Change Agent runs January 21 through March 6, 2022 in the Arlene and Robert Kogod Cradle. Press night for Change Agent will be held on Thursday, February 3, 2022.

“A woman (and an artist) who played a pivotal role in Cold War history has been deliberately erased,” explains Lucas. “What can be said publicly in our country versus what is privately whispered — and, in fact, accepted as truth by those in power — is at the heart of Change Agent.”

The cast of Change Agent — all making their Arena Stage debuts — includes Andrea Abello (Soho Rep’s Passage), Regan Linton (Oregon Shakespeare Festival’s Much Ado About Nothing), Jeffrey Omura (The Public Theatre’s Hamlet), Kathryn Tkel (Theatre J’s The Wanderers) and Luis Vega (Second Stage Theater’s The Underlying Chris).

“Craig Lucas’ Change Agent is a story about America and Washington, D.C. in the volatile 1960s. The 1960s were similar to today — social and racial reckonings for a society on the cusp of real change,” shares Artistic Director Molly Smith. “This story takes a different look at some of the major players of that time and the controversies that surrounded them. Washingtonians will love it because it embodies the heart of this city — the intrigue, the mind games, the high stakes. This is not a docudrama; it’s a journey through the soul and minds of extraordinary people wrestling with giant ideas."

Change Agent is the eighth production to debut as part of Arena Stage’s Power Plays, an ambitious initiative commissioning and developing 25 new plays and musicals from 25 writers over the course of 10 years. With Power Plays, Arena Stage focuses Washington, D.C.’s unique theatrical voice on politics, power and ideas of America, amplifying the theater’s role as a national center dedicated to American voices and artists, located in the heart of the nation’s capital. The massive undertaking features one story per decade, beginning with 1776 through the present day, and builds on the tremendous success of previous Arena Stage commissions and Power Plays, including Eduardo Machado’s Celia and Fidel, Aaron Posner’s JQA, Lawrence Wright’s Camp David, John Strand’s The Originalist and Mary Kathryn Nagle’s Sovereignty.

In addition to Lucas, the creative team includes Set Designer Wilson Chin; Costume Designer Alejo Vietti; Lighting Designer Cha See; Original Music and Sound Design by Broken Chord; Projection Designer Caite Hevner; Fight and Intimacy Consultant Jenny Male; Dialect and Vocal Coach Lisa Nathans; Dramaturgs Jocelyn Clarke and Otis Ramsey-Zöe; Casting by JZ Casting/Geoff Josselfson, C.S.A.; Stage Manager Rachael Danielle Albert and Assistant Stage Manager Leigh Robinette.

PRODUCTION INFORMATION

Change Agent
Written and directed by Craig Lucas
In the Arlene and Robert Kogod Cradle | January 21 – March 6, 2022

ABOUT: The Cuban Missile Crisis, the Civil Rights Movement and the Cold War were just some of the most influential periods in U.S. history, in an eerie resonance with the current social and racial movements of today. Tony Award-nominated (An American in Paris, The Light in the Piazza) playwright and director Craig Lucas’ provocative Power Play imagines dramatic scenes between figures from history who were celebrated and unsung. These insider voices were responsible for influencing major decisions that are still unfolding and radically impacting our country today.
