FULL COMPANY ANNOUNCED FOR LOOKINGGLASS THEATRE COMPANY'S NEW AEROBATIC AND AERIAL TAKE ON MOBY DICK
RUNNING NOVEMBER 18-DECEMBER 24, 2016 AT ARENA STAGE

 Bold trapeze and acrobatic work turn seafaring classic into thrilling experiment in aerial storytelling ***

(Washington, D.C.) Set sail on an epic adventure this holiday season with a dramatically reimagined production of Moby Dick. Adaptor and director David Catlin brings his daring new adaptation of the classic seafaring tale to Arena Stage, using bold trapeze and acrobatic work to bring to life Captain Ahab’s harrowing quest for the legendary great white whale. Hailed by the Chicago Sun-Times as “a triumph of grand theatrical imagination, deep thought, superb acting and eye-popping, ingeniously deployed physical daring” for its acclaimed 2015 debut at Lookingglass Theatre Company, the production fuses innovative staging with aerial storytelling. Based on the book by Herman Melville, Moby Dick is a co-production with the Alliance Theatre and South Coast Repertory and runs November 18-December 24, 2016 in the Kreeger Theater.

Reprising their roles from the celebrated Chicago production are Jamie Abelson as Ishmael, Christopher Donahue as Ahab, Anthony Fleming III as Queequeg, Kasey Foster as Fate/Widow, Raymond Fox as Stubb/Captain Boomer/Captain Gardiner and Javen Ulambayar as Mungun. They are joined by Kelley Abell as Fate/Inkeeper, Walter Owen Briggs as Starbuck/Father Mapple/Dr. Buner, Cordelia Dewdney as Fate/Crone, Micah Figueroa as Cabaco/Captain of New Bedford Whaling Ship and understudies Adeoye (for Queequeg/Mungun) and Chris Mathews (for Ahab/Ishmael/Stubb/Starbuck/Cabaco).

“Moby Dick begs to be reimagined, and who better than David Catlin and the creative team from Lookingglass,” shares Artistic Director Molly Smith. “The story doesn’t just come alive in this production, it flies in the air all around you. Prepare to be amazed.”

“Moby Dick is both a rollicking sea adventure and meditation on madness,” says Catlin. “Even if we haven’t read the novel, we know the first line, ‘Call me, Ishmael.’ We understand Ishmael—a self-titled “isolato”—unmoored and rudderless. Haven’t we all, at some point in our lives, felt that way? Enter Ahab, his quest is noble, impossible and entirely compelling—to dive deeper; to slay the beastly White Whale and rid the world of ‘evil incarnate.’”

TV/film credits include Chicago Fire (NBC); Prison Break (FOX); and Divergent (Summit). Anthony is an ensemble member with Lookingglass and received the 2015 Jeff Award for Best Supporting Actor in a Play for his portrayal of Queequeg in Moby Dick.

KASEY FOSTER (Fate/Widow & Others) makes her Arena Stage debut. She has been performing, singing, directing and producing in Chicago since 2004. She has worked with Chicago-based theater companies including Lookingglass, Manual Cinema, Chicago Children's Theatre, Blair Thomas & Co., Redmoon, Dog & Pony, Trap Door, Theater Wit, Red Tape, Oracle and Collaboration. Kasey sings with Chicago bands Grood, Babe-alon 5, Old Timey and This Must be the Band. She has directed/choreographed over 30 original works and produces an annual series called Dance Tribute. Foster was most recently seen in Mary Zimmerman's Treasure Island (Berkeley Repertory). Thanks to all for supporting the arts! They make everything better.

RAYMOND FOX (Stubb/Captain Boomer/Captain Gardiner) returns to Arena Stage, where he previously appeared in Metamorphoses, a play he performed as part of the original Broadway (Circle in the Square) and Off-Broadway (Second Stage) casts and numerous productions elsewhere. His notable regional credits include Simon Craig in Blood and Gifts (TimeLine Theatre, 2013 Equity Jeff Award, Supporting Actor, Play), Prince Hal in Henry IV (Court Theatre) and Valentine Coverly in Arcadia (Meadow Brook Theatre). Raymond is an ensemble member of Chicago’s Lookingglass where he co-adapted The Old Curiosity Shop with Laura Eason and Heidi Stillman (shared 2006 Joseph Jefferson Award, New Adaptation). Raymond was a member of the Young Company of the Stratford Festival (Ontario) in 1996. He is a graduate of Northwestern University and the A.R.T. Institute at Harvard University.

JAVEN ULAMBAYAR (Mungun) makes his Arena Stage debut. His circus career has given him the opportunity to work with companies including Lookingglass, The Actors Gymnasium and Midnight Circus. He attained his skills in variety of performing acts at Juventas circus school in Saint Paul, Minnesota. Tumbling, teeterboard, acro and Russian bar are among the skills he attained, but above all, he specializes in aerial straps and Chinese pole, performing with male and female partners. He graduated from the University of Minnesota in 2012, with a degree in kinesiology with emphasis on clinical movement and science.

ADEOYE (u/s Queequeg/Mungun) makes his Arena Stage debut. Chicago credits include Lookingglass Alice, The Little Prince, Peter Pan, Icarus and Black Diamond (Lookingglass), The Magnificent (House Theatre), The Unmentionables (Steppenwolf) and The Lost Boys of Sudan (Victory Gardens). Special Events

Moby Dick: From Classic Novel to Novel Play—Sunday, December 11 following the 2:00 p.m. performance

Herman Melville's Moby Dick, originally published in 1851, is widely considered one of the hallmarks of great American literature. Now, 165 years later, this story comes to us in a bold new production. How does this new staging relate to the original text? How does this production both remain true to—and deviate from—the original source? Melville scholars and local artists join in a discussion about the original novel and telling this beloved story in a daring new way onstage.

Post-Show Conversations

Connect with our shows beyond the performance at a post-show conversation with artists and staff—November 30, December 14 and December 20 following the noon performance; December 20 following the 7:30 p.m. performance; and December 22 following the 8:00 p.m. performance.
