 Operated by José Andrés Catering with Ridgewells, the cafe and concessions will hold official grand opening the same day as the Mead Center October 23, 2010 ***

(Washington, D.C.) D.C.-area theatergoers and foodies will delight in the savory options José Andrés Catering with Ridgewells has assembled for the opening menu of Next Stage by José Andrés, the new cafe featured within Arena Stage at the Mead Center for American Theater. Next Stage by José Andrés will offer several cafe menu items that will change throughout the season based on the settings of Arena Stage’s productions, at the same time offering familiar, affordable and easy-to-manage fare delivered with great finesse. Next Stage by José Andrés will hold its official opening on the same day as Arena Stage during the Homecoming Grand Opening Celebration October 23, 2010. The cafe and concessions will also be open to patrons attending the Oklahoma! preview October 22.

“When people come to the Mead Center, they will be able to enjoy the brilliant culinary talents of José Andrés Catering with Ridgewells through the food at concessions as well the full selection of theatrical food in the new cafe,” says Artistic Director Molly Smith. “The creation of this unusual menu responds to the productions on stage. I am pleased that José Andrés, a chef whose work defines creativity, has created this menu. It is focused around his talent as an internationally recognized chef and the productions audiences will see at Arena Stage.”

The cafe and cafe bar will be open two and a half hours before any curtain time, while the lighter fare at the concessions will be open 30 minutes prior to curtain and during intermission. At this time, the cafe will be closed after shows but concessions will remain open for one hour.

Guests are welcome to pre order intermission snacks and beverages ahead of time by contacting 202-600-4100 or e-mailing cafe@arenastage.org.

Next Stage by José Andrés features a full menu including easy-to-order hot soups, salads, paninis, entrées, side dishes and desserts; Grab and Go options featuring cool, quicker selections including sandwiches, salads, snacks and smaller desserts; in addition to pre-order items such as pre fix dinner packages or box lunches (full menus detailed below).

“My team and I wanted to do something special at the new cafe for Arena Stage,” says Andrés. “With Next Stage, we not only honor the astonishing efforts by Arena in its campaign to build the new center, but we also celebrate the performances that change throughout the year by creating menus that draw inspiration from the places and characters that fill each theater.”
